ENCA Reaching Out To HOA's Successful

The East Naples Civic Association has begun a new initiative this year; a Community Listening Tour. The first two of many neighborhoods, The Isles of Collier Preserve and Triviso Bay hosted ENCA in the month of March. Over 100 people attended both meetings.

At the Isles the focus was on the Bayshore Arts District. At Triviso Bay, planning and growth management was the front row.

ENCA President, Jacob Winge, outlined ENCA goals for the year, answered questions from both audiences on a range of issues, and reported on ENCA's success over the past years. If your HOA, neighborhood or community would like to host ENCA for a future date contact Jacob at jacobwingecr@gmail.com or info@eastnaplescivic.com

A special thank you to Patricia "Pat" Young at Isles of Collier and Natalia Armstrong at Triviso Bay for coordinating and getting the residents together.

Another presentation will be held at Naples Lakes this month.

room the 51 courts, browse the US Open Expo, enjoy food and beverages, and watch the hottest pickleball action in the world! If you want to see the action on the Zing Zang Championship Court (it's the one under the pavilion) , there is a nominal fee. Naples Botanical Garden has a welcome center once you arrive inside the park.

What You Can Bring - Portable chairs (there are bleachers around the park), coolers (no glass bottles or alcohol), and dogs are welcome...kept on leash and pick up after them. Food & alcohol on premises so bring some cash (ATM available).

Oh and there's more fun...every afternoon you will be treated to some of the finest musicians in Naples or live coverage of the action taking place on the Zing Zang championship Court under the US Open Expo tents. At the Landshark Beer Garden grab a snack, a beverage and pull up a chair under the tent to enjoy a little relaxation out of the sun. Dancing is welcomed!
